

Ewald Kuehnert

Ewald Kuehnert, long time resident of Groton passed away June 17 in Portland, Ore.

Mr. Kuehnert was born in Groton on January 13, 1888. He attended Groton school and Concordia College in St. Paul, Minn.

Later, in 1908, he married Edna Mae Klaus and became a member of the Presbyterian Church. Together they made their home in Groton for the next 47 years where Ewald was engaged in the shoe business. Mr. Kuehnert retired in 1955, at which time he and Mrs. Kuehnert moved to Portland, Ore.

They maintained their own home on Northeast Killingsworth until early 1978, at which time they became the first residents in Fairlawn Towne Lodge, a Retirement Complex.

Survivors are his wife, two sons, Arthur of Honolulu, Hawaii and Cortland of Yucaipa, Calif., and one daughter, Leone Marcel of Portland, Ore., two granddaughters, Camille Wagener of Gresham, Ore., and Joan Greenland of Purdy, Mo.; three grandsons, Gregory Ramme and Timothy Wagener of Gresham and Steven Greenland of Purdy.

The services for Mr. Kuehnert were held June 22, at the Dempsey Funeral Chapel with interment at Riverside Abbey Mausoleum in Portland, Ore.

For the present time, Mrs. Kuehnert will remain at the Heritage Convalescent Center, 725 S.E. 202 Avenue, Portland, Ore., 97233.